INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS

GENERAL INFORMATION

To start or change your contributions, submit this form within 60 days or your Federal appointment or during a TSP open season. To stop your contributions, submit this form at any time. (See Section III.) Your election will stay in effect until you submit another election during a subsequent TSP open season or until you leave Federal service.

If you change your address, notify your agency employing office immediately so that your agency can correct your records for your TSP account.

Important Note for New TSP Participants: All contributions to your account will be invested in the Government Securities Investment (G) Fund until you direct the TSP record keeper to allocate your contributions differently. There are five TSP funds: the Plan Summary describes the funds and discusses their risks and advantages.

To allocate your contributions among the five investment funds, use the TSP Web site at www.tsp.gov, call the ThriftLine at (504) 255-8777, or submit Form TSP-50, Investment Allocation, to the TSP record keeper at the address on that form. If you use the Web site or the ThriftLine, you will need your Social Security number and your TSP Personal Identification Number (PIN). If you are a newly hired employee, you will receive your PIN in the mail when your new account has been established. If you prefer to submit Form TSP-50, do not do so until you receive a letter from the TSP record keeper confirming that you new account has been

SECTION I

Complete all items in this section.

SECTION II

Complete this section to start your TSP contributions or to change the amount you are contributing to the TSP. Complete either Item 6 or Item 7.

Item 6, Percentage of Basic Pay per Pay Period. You may contribute up to the limits specified in the table below (but not exceeding the Internal Revenue Service annual elective deferral limit).

	FER5	CSRS
July 1, 2001 - December 31, 2001	11%	6%
January 1, 2002 - December 31, 2002	12%	7%
January 1, 2003 - December 31, 2003	13%	8%
January 1, 2004 - December 31, 2004	14%	9%
January 1, 2005 - December 31, 2005	15%	10%
Reginning January 1, 2006	TSP contr	ihution limits elim	inated

Item 7, Dollar Amount per Pay Period. The dollar amount you contribute cannot exceed the percentages shown above. You can contribute as little as $1 per pay period. The dollar amount you choose to contribute will not change until you submit a new Form TSP-1.

SECTION III

Complete this section to stop your contributions. If you stop contributing during a TSP open season, you will not be able to start again until the next TSP open season. If you stop contributing outside an open season, you will not be able to start again until the second open season after this form is received by your agency employing office.

Note: If you are a FERS employee, you may change the way your Agency Automatic (1%) Contributions are allocated even if you are not contributing to your account. You can use the TSP Web site, the ThriftLine, or Form TSP-50, as described in "General Information" above

SECTION IV

You must complete this section.

SECTION V

(To be completed by employing office)

In Item 12, enter the effective date of the action. An election made within 60 days of the employee's Federal appointment must be made effective no later than the first full pay period after receipt of Form TSP-1. Elections made during an open season to begin or change contributions must not be made effective before the first full pay period of the last month of the open season.

If a participant chooses to stop contributing to the TSP (Section III), the termination should be made effective no later than the first full pay period after receipt of the form. In Item 13, enter the date on which the participant may resume contributing to the TSP if the participant completed Section III.

In Item 15, enter the receipt date. This is the date that a properly completed form is received by the agency employing office; if the form has not been properly completed, it should be returned to the employee.
